Notification

3-89-70-LSG

In exercise of powers conferred by section 306 read with Sub-Section (1) of Section 101 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Municipalities Act, 1968 (No. 7 of 1969) and all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Lieutenant Governor, Goa, Daman and Diu, hereby makes the following rules, the same having been previously published, namely:—

RULES

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu Municipalities (Consolidated Property Tax) Rules, 1971.

(2) They shall come into force with effect from the first day of April 1971).

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires:—

(a) "Act" means the Goa, Daman and Diu Municipalities Act, 1968. (7 of 1969);

(b) "rateable value" means the rateable value of any building or land as determined under section 110;

(c) "section" means a section of the Act;

(d) "tax" means a consolidated property tax on lands, or on buildings, or on both, leviable or levied by any Council under section 101.

3. Levy of the tax and maximum and minimum rates therefor.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the Act and the rules and bye-laws made thereunder, the tax shall be leviable by every Council on all lands and buildings situated within the Municipal area, except on those which are exempted under rule 10 or by or under any other provisions of the Act.

(2) The maximum and minimum rates at which the tax shall be levied in different classes of municipal areas shall be as follows, namely:—

Class of the municipal area	Maximum rate of the tax	Minimum rate of the tax
'B' Class	10% of the rateable value.	8% of the rateable value.
'C' Class	8% of the rateable value.	6% of the rateable value.

4. Procedure preliminary to imposing the tax.—

(1) Every Council, other than the one to which rule 5 applies, shall, by a resolution passed at a special meeting convened, within thirty days from the date of coming into force of these rules (or such further period or periods as the Government may, in any case allow) decide to levy the tax on lands and on buildings and approve the rate at which the tax shall be levied.

(2) Within seven days of the passing of such resolution the Council shall publish in the municipal area the resolution together with a notice specifying the rate at which and the date from which the tax shall be levied: Provided that, such date shall not be less than thirty days from the date of publication of the notice and shall not be any date other than the first day of the quarter immediately following the expiry of the said period of thirty days, that is to say, the first day of April, the first day of July, the first day of October or the first day of January, as the case may be, and if the tax is to be levied from any day other than the first day of April, it shall be leviable by the quarter till the first day of April then next ensuing.

5. Procedure preliminary to imposing the tax in special case.— (1) The Chief Officer shall, immediately on the coming into force of these rules, undertake assessment of rateable values of properties in accordance with sections 109 to 127 of the Act and authenticate the assessment list by a date not later than the 31st March, 1971.

(2) The procedure for determining the rate of tax shall be as in rule 4, subject to the condition that the date from which the tax shall be levied in all such cases shall be the 1st April, 1971.

6. Procedure for increasing or reducing rate of tax.— When any Council decides to increase or reduce the rate of tax levied under these rules, it shall follow the procedure laid down in sub-rule (2) of rule 4.

7. Assessment in case of land or building sub-divided into separate shares.— (1) When the assessment list is being prepared under section 111 or being revised under section 120, if it appears to or is brought to the notice of the Chief Officer that the ownership of any building or land or portion thereof (hereinafter in this rule referred to as "the property") is sub-divided into separate shares, the Chief Officer may, on the application of any of the co-owners or suo motu, after giving all co-owners concerned an opportunity to be heard, divided the assessment of such property in the following manner:—

(i) If the Ownership be sub-divided into two or more shares without separate allotments, or if, as the result of such sub-division, there is a separate allotment of such property into two or more separate portion which are not entirely independent, the Chief Officer may, if he thinks fit, apportion the assessment among the shareholders according to the value of their respective shares without assigning any separate number;

(ii) If, as the result of such sub-division, there are separate allotments of such property and if such allotments are made entirely independent and capable of separate enjoyment but not in conformity with the provisions of the Act or of any rules or bye-laws made thereunder relating to buildings, the Chief Officer may, if he thinks fit, assess such portions separately after assigning to them separate numbers;

(iii) If such separated portions of the property are, or are made entirely, independent and capable of separate enjoyment in conformity with the provisions of the Act and the rules and bye-laws made thereunder relating to buildings, the Chief Officer shall assess each portion separately by assigning a separate number thereto.

(2) Any apportionment or separation of the numbers and assessment made under sub-rule (1) shall remain in force for the same period for which the assessment list for the division of the municipal area in which the property is situated continues to be in force.

8. Tax payable yearly or half-yearly in advance.— The tax shall be levied by the year at the rate fixed by the Council and shall be recoverable in advance, but if the Council so decides it may be recovered in two half-yearly instalments payable in advance on each first of April and each first of October. If the tax comes into force on any day other than the first of April, it shall be leviable by the quarter till the first day of April next ensuing.

9. Collection of the tax.— The amount of the tax due shall be paid by the person concerned, from time to time, at the municipal office.

10. Exemptions.— (1) The following properties shall be exempted from the levy of the tax:—

(a) any building or land, or that portion of a building or land, which is exclusively used by the public for religious worship or exclusively used for public purpose of a charitable nature;

Note: Such portions of a building or land belonging to a religious or charitable institution as is let out on rent or is used for purposes other than the religious or public purpose of that institution, shall not be entitled to any exemption under this clause:—

(b) any building or land, or that portion of a building or land, which is exclusively used for purposes connected with disposal of the dead;

(c) any building or land, or that portion of a building or land which is exclusively used for the purpose of a gymnasium, open to the public, free of charge or at a nominal charge, irrespective of religion, race or caste;

(d) any building or land which is a protected monument or area under the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological sites and Remains Act, 1958 (XXIV of 1958).

(e) any building or land belonging to the Council used exclusively for the purposes of the Council;

(f) all agricultural land on which food crops other than commercial crops are raised.

Note: The following are the commercial crops for the purpose of this clause:— Sugar-cane, irrigated cotton, irrigated groundnut, betel-leaves, citrus fruit, banana, grapes and chicoos.

(2) In the case of any building or land (i) the rateable value of which does not exceed Rs. 50 in 'B' class municipal area or Rs. 40 in 'C' class municipal area or (ii) which is exclusively used for imparting education, the rate of tax shall be one half of the rate fixed under rule 4 or 5, as the case may be:

Provided that, the partial exemption on the basis of lower rateable value under clause (a) shall be available to any assessee only in respect of one property.

11. List of exempted properties.— A list of properties exempted from levy of the tax shall be maintained by the Chief Officer and shall be submitted by him to the Council every year for information along with the annual budget.

By order and in the name of the Lt. Governor of Goa, Daman and Diu.
